

Harman Preet Singh
Vs.
Country Colonizers Pvt. Ltd.

RERA Registration No. PBRERA-SAS81-PR0148

Present:- None for the Complainant.
Sh. Tejeshwar Singh, Advocate on behalf of Respondent.

Sh. Tejeshwar Singh, Advocate had come present on behalf of respondent on the previous date of hearing i.e. 19.12.2018 and submitted a deed of settlement dated 06.12.2018 signed between the respondent and the complainant, whereby the matter was mutually compromised. However, none came present on behalf of the complainant. In the interest of justice another opportunity was provided to the complainant to confirm the deed of settlement. Accordingly the case was adjourned for today i.e. 8.1.2019 at 12.30 P.M. Waited for the complainant till 1.30 P.M. However, none came present on his behalf. However, counsel for the respondent appeared and re-confirmed the terms of Deed of Settlement. Accordingly, the deed of settlement is taken on record and absence of anyone on behalf of the complainant is taken as his confirmation of the deed of settlement. Accordingly, the matter is disposed off on the grounds of mutual settlement by way of written deed of compromise.

Dated: 08.01.2019

(Sanjiv Gupta)
Member 08/01/19