Present:- None for the Complainant.
Sh. Manoj Vashishta, Advocate for the respondent.

The present complaint was filed on 05.01.2020. A notice was issued on 23.01.2020 to both the complainant and respondent for appearing on 18.02.2020. The reply was filed by the respondent on 28.05.2020 but no one came present on behalf of the complainant on that day, despite the fact that the office had duly informed the complainant regarding the date of hearing. In the interest of justice another opportunity was accorded to the complainant and the matter was adjourned for 16.06.2020. Once again none came present for the complainant despite the fact that the office had informed the complainant through official landline on 17.06.2020 at 12.20 P.M. Further, in the interest of justice matter was adjourned for today. Once again no one came present on behalf of complainant. It appears that the complainant is not willing to purusue the matter and is deliberately avoiding to appear before this bench, despite receipt of sufficient advance information in regards to the respective dates of hearings.

In view of the above, complaint is hereby dismissed as provided under regulation 19 of the Punjab Real Estate Regulatory Authority (Procedure for handling complaints and related matters) Regulations, 2017.
