

Asha Katyal Vs. PUDA

Dated: 27.08.2018

Present: Shri Amit Katyal authorized representative for complainant
Respondent Ex-parte vide order dated 31.07.2018

Shri Amit Katyal authorized representative for complainant has made a statement that he is authorized by the complainant, who is his mother, to appear and proceed with this complaint. The complaint has been filed by his mother Asha Katyal for grant of interest and compensation, but, inadvertently the complaint has been filed in form-M. Now they want to file a complaint in form-N before the Adjudicating Officer. Necessary permission to withdraw this complaint be granted with liberty to file fresh one on the same cause action in form-N.

Heard. In view of the statement of the representative for complainant, the complainant is permitted to withdraw this complaint in Form-M, with liberty to file fresh one in form-N, if she is so advised, according to law to assert her rights available to her. The complaint is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn. Copy of this order be sent to the complainant. The file be consigned to record room after due compilation.
