Rajesh Kumar Vs A.Tech Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd.

Present : 1. Shri Rohit Jindal, Advocate for the complainant
2. Shri Jaspreet Singh, Advocate for the respondent

Case was taken up through video conferencing.

After hearing some arguments of Counsel for the complainant it was pointed out that the allotment in their favour had been cancelled by the respondent but the said cancellation had not been challenged before this or any other forum. If the allotment stayed cancelled, it would be difficult to consider any relief whatsoever. At this stage, Counsel for the complainant seeks permission to withdraw this complaint with liberty to file a fresh one with better particulars, including a challenge to the cancellation. This is allowed. This complaint is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to the complainant as above.
