Mohinderpal Singla Vs. Manohar Infrastructure

Dated : 15.10.2019

Present: Shri Mohinderpal Singla complainant in person
Shri Dinesh Madra representative for respondent.

The parties have effected a compromise and the statements of parties have been recorded. The complainant has stated that the parties have effected a compromise and six cheques towards full and final settlement have been given to him and he has been assured by the respondent that the same would be encashed on their presentation. In case, there is default in the encashment, he reserves his right to revive this complaint and the company or the directors shall be liable for the default. In view of the compromise, he withdraws this complaint at this stage and the same may be disposed of accordingly. The representative for respondent has also stated that he has heard the statement of the complainant, which is correct and he accepts the same on behalf of the respondent.

Heard. In view of statements of parties and the compromise effected between the parties, this complaint stands disposed of as withdrawn having compromised with liberty to the complainant to revive the same in case of dishonor of any of the cheques. A copy of this order be sent to both sides under rules and file be consigned to record room.
