Order u/s. 31 of Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act, 2016 read with Rule 36 of Pb. State Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Rules, 2017.

When the matter was taken up for hearing today, learned counsel for the respondent drew attention to the settlement deed executed between the parties and submitted that the matter has been amicably resolved. He requested that the present complaint be disposed of accordingly. However, no one appeared on behalf of the complainant in today's proceedings. It is further noted from the record that the complainant has remained absent on multiple occasions, including on 20.08.2024 and 24.12.2024, despite having been given sufficient and repeated opportunities to appear and convey its position regarding the said settlement. In view of the mutual settlement between the parties and the continued absence of the complainant, the present complaint stands dismissed as withdrawn on account of amicable resolution. It is clarified that the dismissal is in view of the amicable settlement and without going into the merits of the case. The file be consigned to the record room.
