Order u/s. 31 of Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act, 2016 read with Rule 36 of Pb. State Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Rules, 2017.

Today, the matter was listed for preliminary hearing; however, when the case was taken up, none appeared on behalf of the complainant. A perusal of the record reveals that the present complaint was filed on 14.10.2025 and was initially listed on 29.12.2025 vide Record of Proceedings dated 13.11.2025 for removal of deficiencies. Notice in this regard was duly issued to the complainant on 17.11.2025 and was served on 21.11.2025, and an intimation was also sent through email.

On 29.12.2025, the complainant appeared in person and sought time to remove the defects, and accordingly, the matter was adjourned to 24.02.2026. However, on the said date, none appeared on behalf of the complainant, and yet another opportunity was granted in the interest of justice, adjourning the matter to 06.04.2026. Today again, neither has any one appeared on behalf of the complainant nor have the deficiencies been removed, despite sufficient opportunities having been granted.

The conduct of the complainant clearly reflects lack of interest in pursuing the present complaint. The proceedings have been conducted from time to time and sufficient opportunities have already been afforded to the complainant to prosecute the matter. It appears that the complainant is no longer interested in pursuing the present complaint.

In view of the above, the present complaint is dismissed in default for non-prosecution, with liberty to the complainant to file afresh, if desired. File be consigned to the record room.
